

Employment Counsellors

Settlement Workers

Community Service / Support Employees

Do you work with people who also need help with their finances?
Do you need some basic answers to their questions so that you can help them more effectively with their other concerns?

Join us for a day of training and get some answers to help your clients!

- WHEN: Thursday, January 14th, 2010
- WHERE: Credit Counselling Society's Head Office
330 – 435 Columbia Street, New Westminister, BC
- TIME: 1:30 pm – 4:30 pm Credit 101 & Dealing with Debt
6:00 pm – 7:30 pm Personal Budgeting Workshop
- COST: $75 per person, payable at time of registration by cheque. This fee is for the Credit 101 & Dealing with Debt training session and with your payment, you are able to reserve a seat for the budgeting workshop as well.

The Credit 101 & Dealing with Debt training session will provide information about various aspects of credit and credit reporting and dealing with debt, including alternatives to bankruptcy and what someone can do when they can't make their payments. The focus of the information will be on assisting people with lower and / or reduced income as well as those looking for work.

The Personal Budgeting workshop is a practical approach to "how to make a budget," including a basic sample budget to illustrate the process outlined in our very popular 7 Steps workbook. Any un-reserved seats for the budgeting workshop will be open to the public.

There are several spots close by to eat so that you can head out between the two sessions. For out of town participants, accommodation is close by as well. Meals and / or accommodation are not included in the workshop fee.

Registration is limited to 14 participants for each workshop – don't miss out!
