Position Title: Financial Educator

Location: Vancouver, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Toronto, and Ottawa

A Financial Educator at the Credit Counselling Society is more than just a job. It's not about maximizing profits and pushing paper, it's about helping people.

If you love meeting new people and chatting about ways we can help them, perhaps this role is for you. If you want to make a real difference in people's lives by teaching them how to be better with their money and credit, then the Credit Counselling Society (CCS) is the right place for you!

As a Financial Educator you will have a very flexible work schedule and a ton of variety. You will be in the community meeting financial institutions, employers, HR professionals, community agencies, schools and post secondary institutions to promote our services. You will also deliver in-person workshops and online webinars to help people develop their money management skills.

What makes CCS a great place to work

- We're all about helping people, educating them, and giving them hope
- We're a fast growing organization
- We are a leader in our industry
- We are an accredited, national not-for-profit organization
- Recognized in 2012, 2013, and 2014 as one of Canada's Great Places to Work

What we're looking for

- Someone with a customer service focus. In everything we do we act as though our world revolves around our clients, because it does! We set the standard for excellence in our industry
- A can-do, passionate, positive attitude. You'll need to bring it every day!
- Independent thinkers and creative problem solvers who also get a kick out of sharing ideas
- Ability to thrive in a fast paced environment
- A happy and supportive heart, an open mind, and the commitment to learn something new every day.
- Knack for not taking yourself too seriously – we don't

What's in it for you at CCS

- We offer a competitive starting salary
- We offer a generous benefit package which includes a matching RRSP program
- We have tons of opportunities for growth, with programs in place to help you get there

If this sounds right for you, then you just might be right for us. Email your resume to careers@nomoredebts.org . Only those short-listed will be contacted for an interview.

Great Place to Work Canada has ranked the Credit Counselling Society as the 19th best workplace in Canada for organizations under 1,000 employees
